

The Raz-Plus Personalized Reading Solution from Learning A-Z is the Winner of the 2019 SIIA CODiE Award for the Best Reading/Writing/Literature Instructional Solution

The award marks the fifth consecutive year a Learning A-Z solution for K–12 schools has won a CODiE Award

Tucson, AZ—June 25, 2019—Learning A-Z® today announced that its Raz-Plus® blended learning solution has won the 2019 CODiE Award for the Best Reading/Writing/Literature Instructional Solution for Grades PreK–8. CODiE Award recipients are recognized as the most innovative companies producing effective education technology products.

Raz-Plus is a comprehensive blended learning platform that provides effective teacher-led instruction, developmentally appropriate reading practice, formative assessment, and data-driven reporting to improve the reading skills of every student, at every level. With more than 50,000 reading resources, lesson plans, activities, and quizzes, Raz-Plus makes instruction more effective and saves teachers time.

“Learning A-Z is a company dedicated to expanding literacy through research-based, online resources for PreK–6 students and teachers,” said Learning A-Z President Patrick Marcotte. “Winning the CODiE Award for the Best Reading/Writing/Literature solution is a powerful affirmation that educators believe our products are among the most effective in helping students develop their reading, writing, and critical literacy skills.”

For more than 30 years, the SIIA CODiE Awards have honored thousands of software, education, information, and media products for achieving excellence and innovation in technology. They are the only peer-recognized program in the education technology industry, and each award serves as market validation for a product’s innovation, vision, and overall industry impact.

“The 2019 CODiE Award winners represent the best of a new class of innovative products that are disrupting education and adding new efficiencies for educators and administrators. These exciting new products are opening doors for learners of all ages by developing and utilizing new technologies to respond to student and educator needs,” said Jeff Joseph, SIIA president. “Congratulations to all our honorees!”
